days al - so like the days of an hire - ling?

Known affectionately as the "Worms" anthem by WGMA members, this version of William Knapp's Funeral Anthem is taken from a collection of 33 psalms and 10 anthems, compiled by Matthew Wilkins, a butcher, of Great Milton, Oxon, printed sometime between 1755 and 1760, and now in the possession of Sheila and Edwin Macadam. There is no title page but almost certainly it comes from his Book of Psalmody, published with varying contents as required locally between these dates. Other sources give the solos to different voice parts.
